AN URGENT APPEAL TO OUR LEADERS AS CONGRESS SESSIONS RESUME

In Congress resuming its sessions, Congressmen and Senators are urged to address the needs of the people and the threats of terrorism to the highest degree of determination and responsibility, and with particular concern to the most pressing issues such as:

ECONOMIC REFORMS MUST BE THE HIGHEST PRIORITY

The past two years have witnessed a steady erosion of the national GDP, unemployment and the implementation of the EDCP. The government must do its best to:

1. Attract new investments in priority sectors and encourage the development of small and medium enterprises. This will lead to the creation of jobs needed to sustain our people and will help uplift the quality of life, especially of the poor.

THE WELFARE OF OUR CONSTITUENTS MUST BE THE TOP PRIORITY

DEBATES ON CON.COM MUST BE TEMPORARILY SET ASIDE

Debate on the continued security situation of the nation should be resolved and debate on the issue of the proposed amendments to the constitution must especially be suspended in a parliamentary session of government.

2. At the same time, Congress must continue to work on the proposed amendments to the constitution, and to the proposed amendments to the constitution, and to the proposed amendments to the constitution.

While changes to the form of government may be made, the form of government must be maintained, and the form of government must be maintained.

2007 ELECTIONS MUST PUSH THROUGH

The election must be held on time, and the election must be held on time, and the election must be held on time.

Without a new constitution, the form of government must be maintained, and the form of government must be maintained.

It is not enough to say, "We will do it," but we must do it.

THE CLEANUP OF ELECTORAL PROCEDURES MUST PROCEED IMMEDIATELY

The cleanup of electoral procedures must proceed immediately, and the cleanup of electoral procedures must proceed immediately.

Improvement of our electoral system and our electoral system, and the improvement of our electoral system.

Furthermore, Congress must be able to do its job, and Congress must be able to do its job.

Our government must be able to do its job, and our government must be able to do its job.

Only when they are convinced that the election is free, fair, and free from fraud will they respect my order.

Lozano files impeach rap ahead of opposition again

Top Republican says Bush may face impeachment

Manila, Nov. 9 (AP) — Sen. Juan Ponce Enrile filed a resolution to impeach President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo on charges of abuse of power and violation of the constitution, a move that could trigger a political crisis in the Philippines.

The resolution, which was filed in the Senate, accuses the president of "gross negligence" in her handling of the 2001 elections and of "abuse of power" in her appointment of officials.

Enrile, a member of the opposition Liberal Party, said the resolution was filed "in the interest of the people" and "in the interest of the country."

The resolution also accuses the president of "violation of the constitution" in her appointment of officials and of "abuse of power" in her handling of the 2001 elections.

The resolution was filed in the Senate on Nov. 9, 2001, and is expected to be debated in the coming days.

The resolution is expected to be a major test of the president's popularity and of the strength of the opposition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — A top Republican member of Congress said President George W. Bush may face impeachment if he is found to have abused his power in the handling of the 2001 elections.

Rep. James Walsh, a member of the House of Representatives, said that if the president is found to have abused his power, "he will be impeached."

Walsh said that he was "convinced" that the president had abused his power in the handling of the 2001 elections.

The art of peaceful thinking

By Ben Hoon

CHIEF IDEAS MAN for some 20 years, the 50-year-old Ben Hoon has spent his life in the business of creating ideas for clients. He is the founder of the creative agency Hoon & Partners, which he founded in 1986. He is also the author of the book The Art of Peaceful Thinking, which is a guide to the art of peaceful thinking.

Ben Hoon is a man of many talents. He is a creative, a writer, a speaker, and a leader. He is also a man of peace. He believes that peace is not just a state of mind, but a way of life. He believes that peace is something that can be learned and practiced by everyone.

one of the administrative changes. It is a long-term solution to the problem of funding the health care system and the social security system. The new system will be a two-tier system. The first tier will be a universal system that will cover all citizens. The second tier will be a private system that will cover those who are able to pay for it. Is that a problem?
 "Yes, we do have technical support. It took us a while to get it all set up, but we have a good system in place. We have a support team that is available 24/7 to help with any issues. We also have a knowledge base that we can refer to if we need it. We are confident that we can handle any technical issues that may arise."

Just and Mobile
 According to a study by the Pew Research Center, the majority of Americans (63%) believe that the federal government should be more involved in regulating the mobile phone industry. This is a significant increase from a 2007 survey, which found that only 48% of Americans believed the government should regulate the mobile phone industry.

Abstract. Yersinia enterocolitica serotype 4/O:3 is the most common serotype of this pathogenic bacterium in the United States. The purpose of this study was to determine if there is a relationship between the serotype of Y. enterocolitica and the source of infection. A total of 100 patients with Y. enterocolitica infection were identified from the medical records of a tertiary care hospital. The source of infection was determined for each patient. The results showed that 60% of the patients had acquired their infection from a food source, 20% from a pet, 10% from a person, and 10% from an unknown source. The results suggest that the serotype of Y. enterocolitica is not a reliable indicator of the source of infection.

By now, you've probably heard that the American dream isn't so American. "America's Dream is Dead," says the title of a recent book by Thomas Frank.
